13 homes.

"The community is bank-owned so we're able to offer incredibly low prices," sales agent Mary-Stokes Reiss said.

The gated community with secure-access parking features homes starting at $169,900 for one-bedroom units and $245,000 for two-bedroom condos.

Homes at The Logan feature hardwood floors, gas fireplaces, wood blinds and gourmet kitchens with granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, custom cabinetry and under-the-cabinet lighting.

Historic Brookhaven, an area of stately homes listed on the National Register of Historic Places, was developed in the early 20th century as a golf club community, followed by quaint neighborhoods of bungalows, Craftsman cottages and other smaller homes.

Brookhaven also is home to Oglethorpe University, a Gothic-style campus that has been on Peachtree Road since 1915, and Georgia State University's new Brookhaven Center, which offers more than 25 courses from the J. Mack Robinson School of Business.

Town Brookhaven, a mixed-use development by The Sembler Co., is under construction near Oglethorpe University. The development will include big-box retailers, smaller department stores, restaurants, boutiques and 1,500 residential units.

The kitchens at Village Place Brookhaven have maple cabinets, stainless steel appliances and granite countertops and backsplashes. One-bedroom homes start in the $180,000s; two-bedroom units are priced from the $230,000s. Letra Cowart Special
