Coldwell Banker Offers Job Loss Protection Plan

Submitted by collin on Thursday, 6 August 2009 No Comment

NRT DEVELOPMENT
ADVISORS

Hearing that fear of job loss is the number one reason that nearly 30% of potential home buyers say they're cautious about entering the real estate market, Coldwell Banker NRT Development Advisors, a leading residential real estate brokerage company, will attempt to alleviate homebuyers' concerns about how to pay for their homes in the event that they fall victim to today's tempestuous economy with its new Job Loss Protection Plan.

Under the program, Atlanta home buyers are offered job loss protection, accidental disability protection, and accidental death protection. Eligible homeowners can receive monthly benefits of up to $1,500 to go towards mortgage payments during a one-year term. In addition, the plan includes a lump-sum payment of $10,000 for accidental death.
